

NPCIL AWARDED FIRST PRIZE AT ITPO DELHI

NPCIL's pavilion at the first editions of Energy Tech '08 and Enviro Tech '08 was awarded first prize for Enviro Tech '08 for the environment conservation activities carried out by NPCIL. The award was given by Dr. (Smt.) Sheela Bhide, CMD, India Trade Promotion Organisation (ITPO), New Delhi on December 17, 2008. The concurrent exhibitions - Energy Tech '08 and Enviro Tech '08 was held during December 14-17, 2008. The exhibition was inaugurated by the Honourable Union Minister for Science & Technologies and Earth Sciences, Shri. Kapil Sibal at Pragati Maidan, New Delhi. The Nobel Laureate Dr. R.K. Pachauri, Director General, The Energy and Resources Institute (TERI) was the Guest of Honour.

It has been reckoned world over that Nuclear Power is a clean, green source of energy. The NPCIL pavilion showcased how Nuclear Power can provide energy security to the country as well as safeguarding the environment. NPCIL is also implementing Environment Stewardship Programme (ESP) aimed at environment conservation, particularly avi-fauna based on sound science.

NPCIL is unique in having comprehensive capabilities in all facets of nuclear technology namely – site selection, design, construction, commissioning, operation, maintenance and life extension of nuclear power plants.