Report on Scientific Meet on “Radiation and Cancer” organized at Shaheed Hasan Khan Mewati (SHKM), Govt. Medical College (GMC), on 11-03-2015.

NPCIL has been organizing a series of scientific meets on Radiation and Cancer for doctors and paramedical staff at various places across the country to allay the unfounded fears about radiation & cancer and nuclear safety issues.

On the same line, a Scientific Meet for the doctors and paramedical staff of Shaheed Hasan Khan Mewati (SHKM), Govt. Medical College (GMC) was organized on 11-03-2015 at Mewat, Haryana. About 130 Medical Professionals participated in the above program.

The intent of the programme was to provide factual information on no linkages between radiation and cancer to the doctors. Doctors being the connectors of the society can help to dispel the apprehensions of general public about radiation and cancer. In the meet, various aspects of nuclear power viz; Need of Nuclear Energy and Safety of Nuclear Power Plants, Radiation Omnipresence, Relationship of Cancer & Radiation, and Retrospective Analysis of Health Profile of Employees of NPCIL were covered.

In the above scientific meet Shri T. R. Arora, Project Director, GHAVP, Dr. Nehal R. Khanna, Assistant Professor & Consultant Dept. of Radiation Oncology, TMH, Shri Ashok Gupta, Head (HPU), NAPS and Dr. R. Deolalikar, Medical Officer, NAPS made presentations.

After the presentations Q&A session was conducted in which number of questions were asked by the participants which were addressed up to the satisfaction of the participants. Prof. Dr. Sansar C. Sharma, Director SHKM, GMC remained present throughout the program and appreciated the efforts of NPCIL.
